9. QUESTION: (INCLUDE SCENARIO IF NEEDED FOR CLARITY):

Claimant is an SSI/SSP recipient. Normally not eligible for CalFresh Program benefits.

Claimant's SSI/SSP is being taken by the Social Security Administration to collect on an overpayment.

Does this claimant qualify for benefits under ACL 17-09.

10. REQUESTOR'S PROPOSED ANSWER:

Not Sure:

ACL 17-09 states: For the purpose of this letter, the terms "interrupted" and "suspended" as they relate to SSI benefits have the same meaning. SSI benefits are interrupted or suspended when a recipient has not received an SSI payment regardless of the reason.

11. STATE POLICY RESPONSE (CFPB USE ONLY):

An intercept is not a interruption or a suspension, it is a fund that was issued to the person, but was intercepted before arrival. It is still considered as money paid, and therefore would still count as income. Even though the claimant isn't actually receiving the SSI/SSP, it is being issued to them. Since the SSI/SSP is being issued, they would not be eligible for CalFresh.
